

He pānui: Voting on our settlement opens tomorrow

KIA ORA E TE WHĀNAU,

This is a reminder that voting on our settlement opens tomorrow, Saturday 29 September 2018.

We are at the most crucial stage of our settlement journey, where we ask you, our people, to vote on whether you approve the proposed Deed of Settlement for Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki Nui-a-Rua.

If sufficient support is achieved for our settlement we will secure redress that includes $93 million and 9,000 hectares of culturally significant land on behalf of the iwi and hapū of Wairarapa and Tāmaki Nui-a-Rua.

The settlement will allow us to build a better future for our tamariki and mokopuna, and to begin to heal wounds of the past. Importantly, the settlement recognises us as kaitiaki over our rivers, lakes, land and natural resources. It provides for the return of important whenua, such as Wairarapa Moana, which is a spiritually significant taonga for our people.

Our elders started this journey for us, they struggled for years. So many contributed to this journey, and we want to go into the future knowing their time has not been wasted. We are the lucky ones who will get to see this settlement finally completed, and we encourage all our iwi members – whether you live at home or around the world – to vote yes and finish what our ancestors started.
